Course Overview

Join us for an interactive discussion on the key practical learnings that can be gleaned from the recent enforcement cases in Guernsey and Jersey.

We will look at public statements to identify what actions you can take and what measures you can apply in your role and in your firm.

Content

During this session you will cover:

- Recent enforcement cases in the Channel Islands
- Enforcement in other jurisdictions which may be relevant
- What went wrong?

Flexible learning that works for you

E: admin@gta.gg | T: 224570 | W: gta.gg

- What are the common trends?
- Actions you can take to manage these risks within your own firm

Benefits

This course has been designed to give a practical overview in the area of regulatory enforcement to ensure that your knowledge is up-to-date with the latest action and trends and to ensure that your policies and procedures are current in light of any such action. This course is for individuals who are holding supervised roles or who are looking to move into a supervised role or those holding director or non-executive director roles in relation to supervised entities.
