Length

2 half days (09:00-12:30)

Course Overview

This practical and evidence based course will equip managers, HR professionals and senior leaders with the tools, frameworks and confidence to shape, strengthen and sustain a positive organisational culture.

Delegates will explore how culture acts as a strategic driver, how values translate into behaviours and how leaders can identify and address limiting patterns that hold teams back.

Through discussion, examples and applied activities, delegates will learn how to monitor culture, evaluate progress and embed consistent leadership practices that support long-term cultural change.

Content

This course will cover the following topics:

- Culture as a strategic driver in organisations
