Course Overview

This interactive online session offers business leaders and directors a guide to effective business leadership. The session will unpack the fundamental responsibilities of a board—setting vision, purpose and values, providing entrepreneurial leadership and maintaining effective oversight in a VUCA (Volatile, Uncertain, Complex, Ambiguous) world.

Content

- The boards role and its leadership responsibilities
- Unique pressure on business leaders and directors in handling business dilemmas and paradoxes
- Setting vision purpose and values
- Defining leadership - Individual leadership vs. the board's leadership role

- Setting the tone
- The power of common purpose and values

Benefits

- Clarifies directors core responsibilities from a leadership perspective
- Identifies the key paradoxes boards face and how purpose helps resolve them
- Identifies the importance of values in driving the business forward with a cohesive culture and ethos
- Identifies what good looks like
